WHAT'S THERE: This is an entertaining food blog by a young Chicago woman. She describes it as her musings on food. She includes her own adaptations of recipes and some very nice food photos.

A SAMPLE: "I'm a bit embarrassed to admit that I ate my first Brussels sprout a mere 5 years ago. I'm not entirely sure why these delightful vegetables get such a bad rap. Though, I do know that Brussels sprouts have become one of my favorite fall vegetables."
